

Claim One (Clean Copy)

A process of applying an adhesive for roofing sheets comprised of spraying in an even layered film an adhesive product compressed of the following components:

- (a) synthetic rubber and resin;
- (b) toluene
- (c) cyclohexane;
- (d) dearomatised petrol;

after application of such adhesive product, placing the bottom surface of rubber roof sheets over the adhesive covered surface, after application of such adhesive product.